Friday 19th May

STATUTORY ASSESSMENT'S

Year 2 have completed their SAT's and have done you proud! Teacher assessments continue in Year 2 and the results will come out in your child's report at the end of year. Year 1 continue to prep for their Phonic Screening in June but as you will know they have made great progress this year, spotting those special friends (digraphs and trigraphs) and sounding out the words. Year 4 are working hard on their tables, watch out for a letter that will let you know what calculations they can practice over the holiday.

WHEELY WEDNESDAY

The children are great at not using their scooters and bikes on site. As a reward they will have an allocated day where they can bring in their wheels and use them in a playtime.

Each week a different class may bring in their scooter* or bicycle to school to enjoy the use of our playgrounds for a 'wheely' good playtime.

To join in the fun pupils should be wearing appropriate footwear, long trousers and must wear a helmet if they are bringing in a bike.
